

Childcare

This course covers 2 units over 2 years which includes The Physical Care of babies and the Play Environment. It aims to develop learners with an understanding of the basic care needs of babies and develop their knowledge and practical skills to meet these needs. It focuses on the importance of play and children’s development. It is suitable for those who are interested in child development and who would like to work with children in the future.

Teaching Staff:

Mrs D Robinson

Course Structure:

Study Area	Assessment	Weighting	Availability
Unit 1 The Physical Care of Babies	Internal Assessment: 4 sections: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Role of the childcare worker and associated care opportunities</li> <li>• Basic hygiene needs of babies and measures to prevent cross infection</li> <li>• Consideration of the disposal of waste and related environmental impacts when caring for babies</li> </ul>	50% for each unit	June
Unit 2 The Play Environment	Internal Assessment: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Children’s physical, linguistic, intellectual, emotional and social development</li> <li>• Importance of play and children’s learning and development</li> <li>• Books, poems, rhymes and games for the age group of your choice</li> </ul> Teacher assesses evidence and externally moderated.

Career Pathways: Childcare, day nursery assistant, classroom assistant